PDG is a balanced, independent, sector-neutral forum committed to advancing the interoperable tracing and verification of U.S. pharmaceuticals pursuant to the Drug Supply Chain Security Act of 2013. By submitting this application, the applicant commits to supporting the mission and purpose of PDG in good faith. The applicant acknowledges that additional information and commitments (including signature of the PDG's Antitrust Policy, Conflict of Interest Policy, and Intellectual Property Policy) may be required as a condition of membership. The applicant will make timely payment of the required membership dues and acknowledges that its membership may be terminated, as described in the Bylaws, if its dues are not timely paid.

We ask all applicants to review the Partnership for DSCSA Governance (PDG) Copyright Policy, accessible here. Agreement to the Copyright Policy is required for participation in PDG.
